Using and Sharing Your Information

Your information will be stored and processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. This Act gives you, as an individual, the right to know what data we hold on you, how we use it, with whom we share it and for it to be accurate. The volunteer data we hold is collected for administrative and insurance purposes, for reporting and statistical analysis and to allow us to contact you with matters of interest. Natural England or its appointed agents may use the name, address and other details on your application form to contact you in connection with occasional customer research aimed at improving the services that Natural England provides to you. If no suitable voluntary role is immediately available we will keep your details on file for up to one year. If you would like more information on Natural England, please contact our Enquiry service on 0845 600 3078.

Thank you for completing this form, and offering your time and skills in support of nature conservation.
